SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS ALFORD FOR CO. CLERK

Hendee Ordered to Issue Certificate of Election to Opponent

The Illinois Supreme Court yesterday denied the petition of Lew A. Hendee, defeated Republican candidate for Lake county clerk, for an appeal from the circuit court ruling that dismissed this election contest against Russ Alford, Democratic candidate.

By the supreme court decision, which affirms the ruling of Judge Ralph J. Dady in the circuit court and brings into force the mandate of the appellate court, Hendee, who has continued to hold the county clerk's office, is ordered to issue the certificate of election to Alford as Lake County clerk.

The supreme court refused to grant Hendee a writ of certiorari and adjourned his petition for a recount in the county court before Judge Perry L. Persons, as his next legal move to retain himself in the office he had held since 1910.

Canvass Ruled in Error.
According to the canvass board, composed of Hendee and Justices of the Peace Henry Wallenwein and Michael J. Haney, the tally of the votes in the November 6, 1934, election gave Hendee the office by 147 votes; but evidence presented in Alford's petition for a writ of mandamus in circuit court showed that 90 votes that should have been credited to Alford in a Highwood precinct were not added to his total and more than 100 given to Hendee in the Round Lake precinct were in error.

The decision of the supreme court yesterday recognizes Alford as the legally elected county clerk by a vote of 18,675 to 18,528, instead of the returns by the canvassing board which gave Hendee the election by a vote of 18,628 to 18,481.

Although there are several more legal moves Hendee can take to continue his fight to keep himself in office, election experts declare it will all terminate in a recount of the ballots.

Antioch Milk Plant Resumes Shipments in Heavier Volume

With a truce declared in the milk war, the Antioch Dairy company began taking and shipping milk regularly last week. The plant was closed during the strike period. The plant is reported to be shipping about 15,000 pounds of milk daily since it reopened with the signing of the truce, which is a greatly increased volume over the daily output before the strike. The increase is attributed to an influx of new members who have signed up by their own request with the local plant as an aftermath of the strike violence.

THOUSANDS OPEN WATERFOWL HUNT SEASON ON LAKES

Antioch Region Crowded as Hunters Open Gunfire; One Minor Accident

The annual bombardment on Grass Lake was held Monday (a few minutes before 7 a. m.) when thousands of waterfowl hunters filled blinds and began blasting to announce the opening of the 1935 season.

Only one minor accident marred the opening of the season when Michael Faust of 2335 Seelye ave., Chicago, was struck in the hip by a shotgun pellet. It is the first time in years that the opening day had not been marked by at least one fatal accident.

The hunter's army numbered about 4,000 individuals in the Lakes region, according to Conservation Warden James Lynch of Fox Lake. Under the new regulations, sunrise hunting of ducks, geese, mudhens, snipe, and other species of waterfowl is prohibited by law and the shooting enthusiasts were restricted until 7 o'clock.

Hunters Beat Whistle.
So eager were some of the hunters, however, that at 6:55 a. m. a blast rumbled over the Lakes region, five minutes ahead of the starting whistle. Even a steady downpour of rain failed to stop the hunters and most of the boats were in the weed beds around the shores and in the center of the lake before 6:15. Many hunters got their limit of 15 mudhens in the first half hour, just after the birds were scared from the top of the water by the constant shotgun blasts.

Last year's opening day fatalities claimed two deaths, two seriously wounded, and more than a score of minor accidents.

State Law Forces Antioch to Cut Parking 50 percent

New Traffic Code Requires Parallel Parking on Illinois Highway

Antioch faces the loss of more than fifty percent of its already inadequate parking space in the business district.

This is the latest problem on the hands of the mayor and board of trustees following the new state traffic law which forces the elimination of diagonal parking on state highways. This law means not only the painting out of diagonal space lines and replacing them with markers parallel to the curb, but also the breaking of a parking habit that has been in effect since the horse and buggy era.

A survey shows that where 115 cars may park diagonally on both sides of Main street, which happens to be part of state highway 54, just about 54 will be able to squeeze in along the curb when parked parallel according to the new state traffic law requirement. If Lake street is considered part of state highway 59, as it has been in the past, there will be the elimination of space for nine other cars where 16 are now accommodated by diagonal parking.

The west side of Main street, from Park avenue to Orchard street, has 52 diagonal spaces, while the east side has 63.

According to the state law a city, town or village can be held equally liable for an accident caused by an automobile or truck backing from a marked diagonal parking space into

PUPILS TO PARADE HALLOWEEN NIGHT AT 2ND JAMBOREE

To Be Costumed Guests of Antioch News and Antioch Theatre Oct. 31

If Halloween pranksters soap your windows or molest your property next Thursday don't blame the school children!

They will be too busy having a good time at the Second Annual Halloween Jamboree now being planned by The Antioch News and the Antioch Theatre, with Grade School Principal Ralph E. Clabaugh and local merchants cooperating. It is open to all grade school children of Antioch and the surrounding neighborhood.

Fred B. Swanson, proprietor of the Antioch Theatre, called upon The Antioch News yesterday to plan the big costume parade through the business section of the village which ends at the theatre where a special show, featuring Laurel and Hardy in their latest full-length comedy, "Bonnie Scotland," will be presented for all who have participated in the parade in costume.

Parade Starts at 7.
The parade, which is in charge of Principal Clabaugh and the grade school teachers, will start from the Grade school, headed by the band, at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, October 31. Only those in full costume will be admitted free to the show and it does not matter what kind of costume so long as it is complete and does not consist of merely a mask or a painted face.

In the interests of safety, no lighted jack-o-lanterns will be permitted in the theatre and all lights will be extinguished at the door. Inside the theatre, prizes will be awarded for the best costumes in the group, the most artistic, the most original, the most comical, etc.

In discussing the plans, Mr. Swanson recalled the first jamboree staged last Halloween when more than 150 paraded into the theatre and competed for the costume prizes. He was enthusiastic over the various costumes of that group and predicts an even greater display next Thursday. Besides the Laurel and Hardy feature picture, he will present an "Our Gang" comedy, entitled, "Little Papa," and a travel talk in natural colors.

Program Heartily Accepted.

Principal Clabaugh heartily endorsed the jamboree plans again this year declaring that it was one excellent means of preventing mischievous pranks that lead to vandalism among youngsters just because of old so-called Halloween ideas about which they had heard stories. He pointed out that police protection will be provided to insure the safety of the children and to make sure that nothing interferes with a safe crossing of the streets.

The program is being arranged to provide the children with a supervised Halloween celebration and to substitute an evening of clean, wholesome enjoyment for the more questionable and distasteful methods of celebrating the occasion.

GOVERNMENT LISTS EIGHT BIG TRACTS FOR COUNTY HOMES

Most Subsistence Homestead Farms Planned for North Lake Co.

Eight large tracts, the majority of which are in northern Lake county east of Antioch, will provide homes for 53 Lake county residents as soon as the government erects buildings as part of the Federal Subsistence Homestead plan.

This is disclosed in a map prepared at the district office at Libertyville, headed by George F. Gonsalves, who announced that bids on the new homes will be opened November 4.

Each of the tracts have been given names for identification and complete plans and specifications for the new homes, barns and well-houses were received at the Libertyville office Thursday.

On State Line.

On the extreme northern part of Lake county is the so-called White tract, located on the Illinois-Wisconsin state line just east of Route 45 which contains 90 acres and will accommodate eight new homes and one remodeled house.

The Minogue tract at the intersection of Routes 41 and 173 contains 80 acres for eight new homes, while the Pullen tract, just west of the intersection of Routes 173 and 45 (Hickory) will provide two new homes. About one and one-half miles north-west of Millburn is the Jack tract where six new homes will be built.

Largest Near Millburn.

The largest of the plots, the Fagan tract on Route 45, a mile and one-half north of Millburn, contains 110 acres. The government's plans call for the construction of 10 new homes and the remodeling of the house already on the property.

The Clark tract of 20 acres, located about one mile north of Grand avenue, just west of Gurnee, will provide two homes while on the Wadsworth road, a short distance east of Rt. 41, is the Leech tract of 80 acres where seven new homes will be erected with the remodeling of the house now on the grounds.

One Near Lake Zurich.

The Krueger tract, just off Route 22, a short distance east of Lake Zurich, is the southernmost site for the homesteaders, where the government will erect six new houses on about 60 acres.

Work is progressing rapidly on the sinking of wells at the 53 sites. Gonsalves reports, and completion of remodeling work on the three houses purchased by the government with the properties is expected to be completed soon.

Teachers to Hear Noted Educators at District Meet

Four well known educators of the country will head the program Monday in the New Trier high school, Winnetka, at a meeting of the Lake Shore division of the Illinois State Teachers' association. The speakers are Dr. B. R. Buckingham, educational editor of Ginn & Co.; Dr. Malcolm C. MacLean, director of the general college of the University of Minnesota; Mr. Fred Blester, principal of Glenbard high school, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; and Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ church, New York city. At the meeting of the group in Evanston last year, Lake county was nearly 100 percent in attendance, according to County Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty, and with school classes dismissed throughout the county Monday, he hopes to report a 100 per cent attendance this year.

"173" Road Boss in Sidney Smith Auto Death Crash

Wendell Martin of Watseka, who was foreman for Mehlman construction company and supervisor of the construction of the Route 173 gap through Antioch this year, was the other driver in the crash near Harvard Sunday which resulted in the death of Sidney Smith, well-known Chicago Tribune cartoonist and creator of "The Gumps." Martin is in a Harvard hospital with a broken hip, a fractured jaw and internal injuries.

The cartoonist was driving alone in a small sedan when his car collided at approximately 3:45 a. m. with Martin's sedan, who was alone and driving to his company's headquarters in Algonquin. There were no witnesses to the crash, but it is believed that the two cars met almost on the center line of U. S. Route 14. Smith's car was whirled around, hurled off the road and into a telegraph pole. Martin's car was thrown on its side but remained on the pavement.

State Highway policeman Osmir Olson discovered the accident, found Smith dead with the top of his head crushed in, and Martin moaning, pinned in his car.

ANTIOCH FIREMEN FIGHT TWIN FIRES

Get Calls to Extinguish Two Fires at Same Time During Lunch Hour

Antioch firemen missed their noon-day meals Friday when a rubbish fire at the home of Jim McMillen, prominent wrestler, and a grass fire north of the Soo Line railroad tracks which destroyed a building on the Hancock property brought out all available firemen and apparatus of the Antioch Fire department.

Automobile traffic was tied up for about one hour as it was necessary to stretch the hose-lines across the Route 54 pavement to bring water to the two blazes. While the firemen were extinguishing the rubbish in the yard at McMillen's home, the department received a call for the blaze on the Hancock property north of the packing house alongside the railroad tracks.

Both fires were put out by the Antioch firemen; but after returning from the scene, flames in the wooden structure where the grass fire roared broke out necessitating a return call.

Veteran Railroad Man Dies of Heart Failure

James Wyatt, 88, Was Resident of Cedar Lake for 30 Years

James Clark Wyatt, 88, retired railroad conductor and for over thirty years a prominent citizen of Cedar Lake, died Tuesday following a heart attack.

Born in Bangor, N. Y., in 1847, he came west in young manhood and took up railroad work. He was retired thirty years ago. His wife died about six years ago. He is survived by one brother, S. D. Wyatt, of Fond du Lac, Wis.

Mr. Wyatt was one of the founders of the Round Lake golf course and was active in many other civic affairs of his community.

FILE PROJECTS! ANTIOCH URGED BY WPA OFFICE

Trustees Act to Beat Deadline After Men's Club Hears Govt. Man

Speaking before more than 50 members of the Antioch Men's club, Melvin Johnson of North Chicago, engineer of the 13th district of the Works Progress administration, urged Antioch to get in more projects before the Federal deadline November 1.

The occasion was the second monthly meeting of the community civic organization which was held in St. Ignatius' Episcopal church Guild Hall Monday, where ladies of the Guild served an excellent dinner to the capacity gathering.

Mr. Johnson, after explaining President Roosevelt's idea behind the WPA to get unemployed people off the dole and onto a payroll, asked the Antioch business leaders to look around. He suggested that there must be sidewalks in Antioch in need of repairs, that the schools probably needed patrolmen to safeguard the passage of children across the streets, and other projects which would place men to work immediately.

Club Endorses Projects.

So enthusiastic were his suggestions received that the Club went on record to support the village board in its attempt to submit a sidewalk-repair and building project. An emergency meeting of the board has been called for tonight by Mayor George B. Bartlett in order that official authorization can be granted to apply for projects recommended by Mr. Johnson.

Meanwhile all particulars relative to the sidewalk repair project have been investigated including the total footage to be handled. The project would require about eight months to finish and employ 15 laborers from the unemployed ranks. A survey would also be made with relief roll workers. Of all the work on the project, the village is required to employ and pay a superintendent. Monday is the deadline in the Rockford divisional office for this WPA project. Application has already been filed for three men to work as patrolmen at the school intersections.

Plan Ice-skating Rink

Plans for an ice-skating rink within the village limits which would be provided under the WPA is also underway, it is reported by William Anderson, who heads a committee in charge of this contemplated project. He expects one of the engineers from the Rockford office in Antioch within a few days to determine the cost and the number of men who can be employed with this type of project. It is understood that there is no deadline for this undertaking.

During the business part of the meeting, Dr. W. W. Warriner was appointed on the civic committee of the Men's club to replace Frank King who intends to spend the winter in Arizona.

With the aid of Betty Bray, Grace Minto, Anna Mae Turnock and Jeanette Bellock, all post-graduates, Miss Roberts is training various Antioch girls to be chosen leaders for Conference discussion groups.

REPUBLICANS GIRD FOR BATTLE; ELECT MILLER CHAIRMAN

Benjamin H. Miller of Libertyville as chairman. Mr. Miller pledged that while he holds this position he will not seek any elective or appointive office.

"My aim is to organize the county so as to bring back the 35,000 Republican voters in the county to the party," he asserted.

"THE LUNATIC FRINGE"

"There is a lunatic fringe of drivers who create hazards, for themselves and everyone else, as they rush on their heedless way," said an article in the Ladies' Home Journal for July, 1935. "They are 5 to 10 per cent of drivers who are responsible for 90 per cent of all accidents."

This "lunatic fringe" has so far shown itself to be 100 per cent deaf to the most elementary principles of reason. Its members know that excessive speed is the most prolific of all causes of serious accidents, and that a collision that would be unimportant at 20 miles an hour will probably prove fatal at sixty—yet they continue to push the throttle through the floorboards. They know that passing on hills and curves is an invitation to the coroner—yet so important does time seem to them that they are perfectly willing to risk their necks and the necks of other drivers to save a few usually unimportant minutes. They know that weaving in and out of traffic, driving on the wrong side of the road and similar stupid practices, may mean sudden death in one of its most horrible forms—yet they persist in these practices. They know that many accidents, fatal and minor alike, can be attributed to cars in faulty mechanical condition—yet they continue driving many an "old heap" when its horn is silent, its lights are either glaring or inadequate, its steering shimmies, and its brakes are about as valuable a stopping device, as the accelerator.

Result: An annual death toll that hovers around the 35,000 mark.

Only the most stringent methods can hope to handle the lunatic fringe. Modern traffic laws, rigidly enforced not only by the traffic patrol but by the enthusiastic cooperation of the sane and careful drivers (the 90 per cent) are vital. The only way to hammer some sense into the lunatic fringe is to treat them as the public enemies they are.

THREE ESSENTIALS

Today, according to a multitude of unprejudiced and non-political opinions, there are three main essentials to recovery:

First, a decisive campaign to reduce the cost of government, balance the budget as soon as possible, and thus eventually make sweeping reduction in taxes.

Second, less governmental interference with legitimate business enterprise, and an assurance that new laws, restrictions and rulings will not cause management to become mere rubber stamps for Washington bureaucrats to handle at their discretion.

Third, the assurance that there will be no tampering with the instrument that stands foursquare between America and one form or another of dictatorship—the constitution.

Business asks these things. So do property owners. So do people with savings accounts and investments. And so do thinking workers, who realize that industrial confidence is the mainspring of steady, productive employment.

A balanced budget; the greatest possible leeway for honest commercial activities; a continuance of constitutional government—from these we can fashion recovery and abiding prosperity.

"READ THE NEWSPAPERS"

President George W. Rightmire advised members of the record-breaking freshman class at Ohio State university recently to "read the newspapers."

"No one can succeed without the news: the newspaper is at least 50 percent of modern life," he asserted.

"Radios, movies—nothing takes its place. Here we can read and, if we forget, we can read again. We do not have to take it all in at one sitting; we can digest one installment before we continue with the next."

"On the information and ideas coming to us through the press we plan our daily life—we want this or we avoid that or we are entertained by the other or we are wrought into a generous indignation by something else—we little realize how the newspaper dominates our lives."

RAISE YOUR OWN POTATOES!

There is a great rumour about whether the AAA is to enforce the Potato Control Act or not.

Just what discretion has the AAA, or any of its officials, to do other than enforce the law? They have not been given the power to nullify or change any law.

The courts still have the duty of deciding on the legality of the acts of Congress and this constitutional provision of our government has not yet been abrogated.

The quickest way for our citizens to break the legislative program to drive up potato prices is for every citizen with a back yard or front yard, to raise potatoes for his own use.

That would also be an expression of disapproval of the new doctrine of food scarcity that is advocated to raise prices. "Every family raise its own potatoes" may become a national slogan.

Newton's Three Laws of Motion Newton's three laws of motion are: Every body continues in its state of rest or uniform motion in a straight line, unless impelled by external force to change that state. Rate of change of momentum is proportional to the force acting, and takes place in the direction in which the force acts. To every action there is an equal and opposite reaction.

Bally's Beads

Bally's beads are a phenomenon seen during a total eclipse of the sun. Just before the moon's disc completely covers the sun the narrow crescent of sunlight is broken in several places, giving an appearance roughly compared to a string of beads. This is due to irregularity (mountains and valleys) on the edge of the moon's disc. These beads were named after Francis Bally, noted English astronomer.

Heart of "Dwarf Stars" Heavy

The heaviest substance in the universe is probably in the heart of the "dwarf stars." Here atoms have been stripped of their outer electrons by millions of degrees of heat, and the nuclei, or solid centers, packed so closely by pressure that a cubic inch would weigh 2,000 pounds. It would tax your strength to the utmost to lift a single tiny grain of sand if it were made from this substance.

Pronunciation of Raoul

Pronounce it "Rah-ool." Raoul is the French form of the old Teutonic or Norse name which appears in English as Ralph. The meaning is uncertain, although Ernest Weekley, in a book on "Surnames," declares it to be an animal name, applied originally to one who was fancied to have some qualities of the wolf—a creature of which the early Nordics saw a good deal.

Queen's Own Scouts

Honolulu has a Boy Scout troop No. 5, called "The Queen's Own," which was organized more than 25 years ago. It was the first troop of Hawaiian scouts in those American isles.

News of By-gone Years in Western Lake County

Forty Years Ago

Arthur Edgar has closed his City bakery for the winter. We understand however, that Mr. Edgar intends to open in the spring.

James Burke of Evanston accompanied by his son, Dr. Brown, of that city, visited his uncle, Anthony Burke, a few days last week and whiled away the time shooting ducks on Grass Lake. We understand the party bagged a few of the feathery tribe before leaving the lakes in Wisconsin where they went last week.

C. L. Webster of Homer, Nebraska, a former resident of this place, who has been visiting friends at Cypress, Bristol and Antioch, made our office a short call and will henceforth read the News. Mr. Webster returned to his home Saturday, where he is successfully engaged in farming.

The unchanged and changeless George D. VanLone has been visiting relatives at Grass Lake, and called on some of his Antioch friends.

Miss Anne Benedict left Monday morning for Iowa, to spend the winter with relatives.

You are cordially invited by the Young People's Prayer Meeting Society to attend a Mum Social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simons, Friday evening, October 25.

William Cane of Fox Lake made our office a short call Wednesday.

Mrs. W. F. Ziegler was a Chicago passenger Wednesday morning.

The Antioch High School boys and the Genoa City High School boys played a game of football here Saturday of last week. The Genoa City team was defeated by a score of 5 to 1. HURRAH FOR ANTIOCH!

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Oct. 25, Rev. Sizer of Bristol officiating, Ada May Van Duzer to Robert Guest. The bride is well and favorably known, having lived here all her life. The groom is a resident of Pleasant Prairie, having been an engineer at that place for the past six years. He has resigned his position and bought a store. Their many friends wish them every success in business and a long and happy life.

Answer Fire Call.

The Antioch Fire Department had its first taste of winter of Tuesday night when they made a run to Chaney Lake. A fire from an overheated furnace was discovered at Sunset Camp in the play cottage. The fire was brought under before the Department arrived. Quite a little damage was done as the floor was badly burned.

Anton J. Cermak, president of the Cook county board of commissioners, resumed his duties last week after a layoff of two months on account of illness.

Repair work at the Chicago Footwear Co. was finished this week. A hardwood floor was laid and varnished. Dressing up the interior changes the appearance in great style.

Miss Elizabeth Webb has returned home from an extended trip through the Northwest. She reports a very pleasant trip.

Of course you are to the Halloween Basket Social and Program at the Emmons school, Friday, October 30, at 8:00 P. M.

Chinese Wall, Engineering Feat

Tradition says more than a million men worked 12 years to build the great wall in China that winds its way westward from the sea, over hill and dale, mountain and valley, twisting and turning, with high defense towers at distances of 150 to 200 yards along the entire way—a barrier against the warlike Tartar hordes that attacked again and again throughout the years. As a feat of huge engineering achievement it stands unsurpassed, and it has stood more than 2,200 years, for it was built in the Third century B. C. Its top is paved with granite blocks, about 12 by 4 by 3 inches, and could serve as a parade ground today.

"d" Abbreviation for "Penny"

The sign "d" in English money is the abbreviation for "penny." It stood originally for the Latin denarius, a coin of value equivalent to the Anglo-Saxon penny. Medieval money changers continued its use as an abbreviation for the penny and gave it a fixed place in English custom. A penny is approximately equal in value to 2 cents. The half penny is therefore about the equivalent of our cent.

Tuskegee Institute

Tuskegee Institute, an institution for the education of negroes, was established in 1881 by an act of the Alabama legislature under the name of Tuskegee State Normal school. It was opened July 4, 1881.

Half-Mast and Half-Staff

The terms half-mast and half-staff are synonymous. The definition is a point some distance, not necessarily half way, below the top of a mast or stant or peak of a gaff; as a flag at half-mast, a token of mourning or sometimes of distress.

PORCUPINE AN OLD TIMER IN AMERICA

Probably Been Here About Two Million Years.

Washington, D. C.—The porcupine family were "old settlers" in North America. The oldest fossil belonging to this rodent group yet found on the continent has been identified in material gathered in the Snake river valley of Idaho by Dr. C. Lewis Gazin, Smithsonian Institution paleontologist. The deposits belonged to the late pliocene or early pleistocene period of the geologists, about at the start of the great ice ages more than 2,000,000 years ago.

This porcupine left only a part of its lower jaw in the rock as a record for posterity, but this was enough for Dr. Robert W. Wilson, paleontologist of the California Institute of Technology, to place it in the proper family.

It was evidently a somewhat larger, heavier creature than either of the two porcupine species now found in the United States. Hitherto the creatures have been considered relatively late arrivals on this continent, although they have a greater antiquity in South America. Other bones gathered in the area indicate that South American animal types were penetrating far northward at the time.

Fossils of both the extant species of porcupines go back only to cave or volcanic fissure deposits dating from the middle or late ice-age period. Hitherto only one fossil representing an extinct species of porcupine has been recorded on the continent. This was a rather complete skull obtained from a volcanic fissure in Arizona and dated from the late pleistocene period.

The indications are that the porcupines may have been in North America even in the early pliocene period, or more than 10,000,000 years ago.

Hitherto, however, the tangible evidence of this consisted only of two teeth found in the Niobrara river region of Wyoming, and paleontologists are in doubt as to whether these could not be assigned more properly to an ancient beaver. No additional remains ever have been found in the area.

The remains identified by Dr. Wilson are closer to the present porcupines than to the older animal.

Arizona Woman Makes

Pets of Gila Monsters

Tucson, Ariz.—If any traveler to Arizona should wish to take home a playful little Gila monster to keep the cat from getting lonesome, he can buy one already house-broken.

Mrs. Nell Hollerman has opened Arizona's queerest pet ranch. She trains Gila monsters for pets and sells them to tourists.

So well behaved are the monsters, whose skin looks like a woman's beaded bag, that they come waddling on their four human-like feet when she calls them by name. They are also quite affectionate, climbing on her shoulders and caressing her neck.

"Although most people are afraid of Gila monsters because they can bite like bulldogs, sinking their sharp teeth in a vise-like grip into the flesh, they are not dangerous," Mrs. Hollerman declared. "If treated kindly, they will come to love you and to obey you. They are as smart as a dog and can be taught any number of tricks."

Initials Cut on Tree

by Woodpecker Startle

Leonardtown, Md.—A white-necked woodpecker able to print letters of the alphabet with its beak is being regarded with awe here by some citizens as living proof of the theory of reincarnation.

On the limbs of an ancient 8 foot yew tree growing in the garden of Tudor Hall Mansion, ancestral home of the Key family, built in 1700, this bird has tapped out in spots the initials "F. H. J." and in another place has made a "W."

The tree was planted many years ago to the memory of a youth whose initials were F. H. J. and who was killed during a duel while he was a midshipman at the Naval academy. The bird is the sailor in new guise, skeptical oldtimers in St. Marys county have it.

Caddy Bequest Will Go to Most Deserving Boy

St. Louis, Mo.—An estate for deserving caddies has been established by the will of a St. Louis golfer, Walter Hyde Saunders, who died recently.

Saunders willed $500 to the Bellevue Country club. The interest is to be given each year to the caddy who during the year has the best record for efficiency, courtesy and honor.

Preference will be given boys supporting their mothers or earning their way through school.

Strange Fishes Sold;

Museum in Mourning

Honolulu.—Enterprising Chinese fish merchants broke the scientific hearts of Bishop museum researchers when they peddled storks from two strange fish of a species never seen before in Hawaii.

The anonymous specimens, weighing 44 and 21 pounds, respectively, were caught off the Kona coast, island of Hawaii. The fish had stubby tails and blunt snouts which made them strangely resemble hogs.

Museum experts determined from photographs luckily taken of the specimens that they slightly resembled fish of the Labridae family known as the Wrasses.

Longer Lines in Ford V-8 for 1936

THE LONGER and more graceful lines of the Ford V-8 for 1936 are well illustrated in this view of the popular De Luxe Tudor Sedan. The new longer hood extends gracefully over the attractive new radiator grille. Wide streamlined front fenders, with an imposing flare, shroud the tires and house the horns behind chromium grilles. New design steel wheels with 12 1/4-inch hub caps are handsome and easy to clean. Bucket-type front seats are exceptionally comfortable. This body type, of welded steel like all Ford V-8 bodies, is also available without de luxe appointments at lower cost.

The People of India

Three races widely distinguished from each other inhabit India. In the northeast are Mongols, who resemble in descent and language the Tibetans and Burmese. In the south are the Dravidians, or the rude hill tribes, whose connection with other great branches of the human family is still a subject of dispute among ethnologists. In the northwestern and central part are the Aryans, including the frontier tribes and the Hindus. The latter constitute by far the largest part of the great population inhabiting the country.

Mediterranean Commerce

For centuries the Mediterranean was the only sea to bear commerce. The Straits of Gibraltar were the gateway to this huge sea. Countries not on the Mediterranean's shores were backward, barbaric, or subject to the Mediterranean races.

Foretold Quake

Just prior to the disastrous earthquake at Quetta, birds and animals behaved as though they had a premonition of impending doom. Crows and sparrows particularly refused to roost in trees and cowered in the open.

Yellow-Billed Cuckoo Is Shy

The yellow-billed cuckoo is a shy bird, of about 12 inches in length, found generally in orchards where it is of inestimable value in destroying tent caterpillars, beetles and other harmful insects. It breeds in northeastern United States and winters in South America.

Colonials Had No Bridal Tours

Marriages in Colonial times were not followed by bridal tours, but in some parts of the country the bridal party was entertained on successive days for miles around.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but, after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—

Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 5 1/2 gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermosyphon action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvers permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Now on display by Ford dealers.

Liquids Reflect Light
When light strikes the surface of a liquid a small part of it is completely reflected. Liquids in the forms of lathers, foams, and mists present a very large amount of surface and consequently reflect most of the light that strikes. Since light is white, foam or mist appears white.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Doctrine of Atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 20.

The Golden Text was: "We are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (II Cor. 5: 20).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon are the following from the Bible: "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12: 1, 2).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If Truth is overcoming error in your daily walk and conversation, you can finally say, 'I have fought a good fight. . . I have kept the faith,' because you are a better man. This is having our part in the at-one-ment with Truth and Love" (p. 21).

Church Loyalty

In this day much is being said about co-operation, a movement that is worthy of all the attention that is given to it, but there is another that stands equally important when that success of the whole is desired: that is "Loyalty." Church loyalty is not to be excepted. We have been doing much to overcome denominational prejudice and create a friendly attitude on the part of churches of various faiths, but that need not affect our loyalty to our church. There are always some unscrupulous leaders who have forgotten the first elements in Christian ethics, but the Christian who is to be trusted is the one who in the fervor of his Christian passion urges you to attend your church and support its cause to the last ounce of devotion you possess. And he who would lead children in any other way than a steadfast loyalty to their church is amply cared for in the invective spoken by our great Teacher when he said "It were better for him (in that day) that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea." In our zeal for our church it is well for us to look about to the uncultivated soil, and plant our seeds where they will fall in ground that will bring forth a harvest that will do us honor.

There are few places where there is not room to expand in virgin territory, and God has a rich reward for the pioneer in the field of personal evangelism. The joy of the true Christian missionary and teacher is in planting the seeds of Christianity in virgin soil and seeing the plants ripen unto the harvest, so we call upon our Christian teachers to do their part in helping carry the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth, our community not excepted, teaching the gospel of life and light and hope.

Marguerite Visits New York Beauty Salons

Marguerite Hattrem, the proprietor of the Little Marguerite Beauty Shoppe, recently returned from a business and pleasure trip to the Big Village on the Hudson and reports that we of the Middle West are not so very far behind the most modern styles in hair dressing as might be supposed. At the time that Marguerite took in the bright lights of the Gay White Way, the hairdressers and cosmetologists were having their convention at the Hotel Pennsylvania and the newest improvements were usually from manufacturers located in the Mississippi Valley.

The most important development was in permanent waving heaters and curlers.

These are called the "Midget" for lack of a better name, because of their small size which allows the operator to give more and tighter curls on the nape of the neck.

As the hair is finer and grows out quicker on the neck it has always been a problem to keep an end curl after a few hair cuts. These new "Midgets" should overcome this difficulty.

Ammonium Nitrate
Ammonium nitrate, an explosive, is something of an anomaly. On the basis of theoretical considerations of heat measurements it should be highly explosive. Yet when pure it is non-inflammable and cannot be made to explode. But when mixed with other substances, such as aluminum powder or TNT, it can be touched off to give as good an explosion as the theory predicts. It is one of the ingredients of the safety explosive, nitramon.

Hummingbird Speed Champ
Speed championship in the bird world must be accorded the hummingbird with runner-up honors going to the bat. The human eye cannot follow the hummer; when desiring to leave a bed of flowers for another more favorable spot, he shoots away in a flash, says American Nature Association of Washington.

The spirit of Halloween will be seen at a masquerade ball sponsored by the Keynoters club of Antioch in St. Peter's Hall Wednesday, October 30, according to Charles Cornak, Jr., of Loon Lake. He explained that in addition to good music and refreshments, prizes will be given to masqueraders.

Broadway of America
The Bankhead highway, which has been called the Broadway of America, is a thoroughfare connecting Washington, D. C., with San Diego, Calif. It is 3,450 miles long and is named for Senator Bankhead of Alabama, long identified with the good roads movement. The highway passes through the cotton-milling, textile and manufacturing cities of the South and includes points along the Mexican boundary line.

Deaf Musician
When he was forty-nine Beethoven became totally deaf, yet many of his greatest works were composed afterwards. He was sometimes found playing a piano that badly needed tuning, and in the softer parts he did not produce any sound at all. He could not hear the applause his works occasioned; he could only watch the enthusiasm of the audience.—Tit-Bits Magazine.

A sponging house, mentioned in English stories, was a sort of tavern kept by a bailiff, where debtors could be lodged temporarily while arrangements for paying their debts were being made.

NAVY DAY MONDAY

With the re-opening of the Great Lakes Naval training school this year, Lake county expects to observe Navy Day Monday with more than a passing interest, according to reports from municipal officers in all sections of the county. In a communication from Lieutenant J. M. Higgins of the U. S. Navy from the ninth naval district headquarters at Great Lakes, he explains that 1935 will mark the fourteenth annual observance. It is suggested that American citizens observe Navy Day by displaying their American Flags Monday.

A & P Celebrates 76th Anniversary This Week

Way back in 1859 one little A & P store was established in New York City. Mr. George Huntington Hartford, father of Mr. John A. Hartford, President of The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, began his business through the importation of a quantity of tea which he sold direct to his customers. Thus the first channel of direct to the consumer merchandising was accomplished. Today, 76 years later, there are almost 15,000 stores which are performing the same function. Demand of the buying public has caused these stores to increase from one to 15,000, making A & P the largest retail organization in the world.

There are approximately 2000 A & P stores in the Midwest serving both urban and farm communities. The method of buying is direct from producers and what is saved through this direct buying is passed on directly to the customers in lower prices. After all, the Hartford idea is so simple and natural that it has been readily accepted by the consuming public.

This week A & P is celebrating the 76th anniversary of its customers have placed in them by featuring many well known brands of merchandise. The newspapers throughout the country will carry the bulk of the advertising copy that will present these values to the people. Seventy-six years is a long time to be in business, and the foundation upon which this business has been built is no doubt sound and fundamental to enable them to have such an outstanding record.

The Mexican Flag

The ensign of Mexico is a tricolor of green, white and red, with the arms of the country imposed upon the white section. The arms originated with the legend that the Aztecs could not settle until they found an eagle with a green serpent in its beak, standing on a cactus plant situated on an island in a lake.

First Channel Crossing

The first flying craft to cross the English channel was a curious combination of balloon and airship. It made the crossing in 1785, piloted by Blanchard and Jeffries. This quaint craft looked very much like a rowing boat suspended from a round balloon, with a sail at one end and oars at the sides.

"SPY" PHOTOGRAPHS FAIL TO EXCITE US

Visitors May Take Pictures of Spans and Tunnels.

Washington. — What the United States does not consider military secrets was illustrated a few days since with the release of five Japanese tourists arrested by police in New Jersey when seen making photographs in the Holland tunnel. They were released promptly on their explanation they were there making records of a recreational tour.

In most countries strangers taking photographs are under suspicion as possible spies. This applies not merely to fortifications, but to structures or localities which have no direct military significance.

Tunnels, bridges, highways and everything connected with transportation are deemed of more or less strategic importance in the event of war, as they are necessary to rapid mobilization. An invading army, for instance, would cut off the water supply of a city; the making of photographs of an aqueduct therefore might be regarded by some nations as an act of espionage.

The Government View.

The attitude of the United States War department seems remarkably lenient to foreign visitors, accustomed to the strict regulations at home. Photographing of fortifications is permitted here under certain conditions. Prints may be bought openly and many are reproduced in newspapers and magazines or on souvenir postal cards. Not infrequently even aerial views of fortifications are published.

What shall be seen and pictured at any American military post or fort depends largely upon the decision of the commandant, who is guided by the War department.

Civilian tourists of all nationalities appear at military posts of the United States. They are required if admitted, however, to check cameras.

Photographs can be taken by accredited representatives of the press at the option of the officer in charge. They are made under his supervision so that they reveal no technical secrets.

Invite Photographers.

The army may even invite press photographers to be present at the testing of huge sea defense guns at Sandy Hook, but it prefers to issue photographs made for publication by its own signal corps.

News photographers who attended the recent army maneuvers were pledged not to make any plates of a new type of tank in use there. It was designated a "restricted project."

A restricted project is usually in the experimental or research stage. It may be studied for months before it is finally adopted. Severe penalties would be imposed on any officer releasing the facts concerning it or permitting pictures to be made of it. There were 18 foreign military attaches present at the maneuvers; they were not supposed to look at the taboos tanks or to show any curiosity.

Speed of Airplanes Is Doubled in Eight Years

Chicago.—A 100 per cent increase in airplane speed in eight years. That's the record established on the pioneer mid-continent airway, the first air route to link the Atlantic to the Pacific, as revealed by United Air Lines' bulletin comparing the service it offered in 1927 when it took over the air mail contracts from the government and its new 10-hour coast-to-coast flights.

The original schedule with single-engine planes over the 2,700-mile airway between California and New York was 32 hours. In 1930 the cross-country flight was cut to 29 hours 45 minutes. Every year since 1930 United has cut its time, the greatest slash being in 1933, when the three-mile-a-minute twin-engine Boeings cut seven hours from the coast-to-coast time for the first 20-hour across America schedule.

Undersea Creatures Band Together for Protection

Berkeley, Calif.—"Partnerships Under the Sea" might fittingly be the title of a new and spectacular film announced by scientists of the University of California in connection with the institution's visual education department program. The film shows hitherto unphotographed "alliances" under water of sea beings, such as the hermit crab and the sea anemone; the sea cucumber and pearly fish; the salpa fish and jellyfish, who, it was found, band together for mutual protection.

Key Lost for 30 Years Discovered on Radish

Cedar Rapids, Neb.—While sweeping snow from her porch 30 years ago, Mrs. Phil Wagner brushed a key into the garden bed. An exhaustive search failed to find it.

A short time ago Mrs. Wagner was pulling radishes from her garden. Encountering a particularly stubborn plant which refused to come out, she cut around it with a knife. She found the key encircling the radish.

Wrong Righted on Canvas

Fremont, Ohio.—For years the water in a picture at the city hall depicting a scene of the War of 1812 ran up hill. The city council, tired of jibes, recently authorized the retouching of the painting to correct the stream's condition.

Napoleon's Greatest Defeat

Napoleon met his greatest defeat when he fought the battle of Waterloo.

The Word Tame

The word tame has been applied to man, and among agriculturists is used to designate "that which has been brought under or produced by cultivation." Tame land, says Literary Digest, means cultivated land, and tame hay means hay produced under the same conditions.

Sounds Break Glass

It is possible to break a glass by making certain sounds near it. Caruso was able to break glasses by singing to them—but he used a certain note which he knew the glass could not stand. Glasses have actually been broken by sounds coming over the wireless.

Costume of Suede Is Top o' the Mode Jack-o'-Lantern Time Brings Fun for Cooks

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

STOP, look and listen for it's most important news we are telling you—all about the latest sensation in fashion, namely the costume done entirely of handsome, colorful suede. In the perfectly stunning dresses, jackets, swagger coats and many-piece ensembles of all-leather which are stepping out into the limelight this season, an epoch-making chapter is being written into the annals of fashion history.

A significant thing about this intriguing all-leather movement is that designers have discovered that suede adapts itself with equal facility to formal as well as casual sporty styling. Which is a line of thought to which our minds must adjust would we fully appreciate the broad scope covered in the new leather fashions, since hitherto the mention of leather in a style sense meant its use for sturdy sportswear only. In the new order of affairs suede qualifies as aptly and happily as a medium for the loveliest and daintiest of formal evening apparel as it does for the sturdiest of outdoor garments.

To prove to your satisfaction the truth of the above assertion, we invite you to glimpse the "love of a gown" as pictured to the left in the illustration. The lady of the evening as here portrayed is Bette Davis of cinema fame. She is wearing an exquisite gown of white chevreau suede. Which goes to show that Hollywood agrees with Paris in this all-leather yogue now sweeping throughout the style centers of the world. An adorable gown, you will admit, is this beguiling suede formal. It has the sleek, suave lines to which so many of fashion followers aspire. A high neckline in front with low neckline outlined with braided suede adds further distinction to this charming gown.

Suede evening wraps are also in high fashion, either of the short jacket styling or in loose swagger lines. Capes, too, if you please, some of which are elegantly collared with white fox.

To the right in the picture, Kathleen Burke, another favorite, is wearing a five-piece ensemble done entirely of handsome suede. In a fascinating tone of rich hunter's green. It is one of the hand-laced types (the skirt is sewn together with leather thong) such as is foremost in fashion this year. In fact, laced leather is the passport to high style in the thrilling suede outfits that are being turned out for fall and winter. For the seams to be laced together as here shown dates your costume as being unmistakably a "last word" creation.

In the instance of the five-piece "set" here shown, lacing is carried out along the edge of the side-front fastening of the form-fitting skirt, also on the collar and revers of the swagger coat and two-buttoned vest. A saucy youthful suede beret together with a miser's drawstring bag completes this perfectly stunning street outfit.

As to the cunning outfit below in the group, it tells at a glance that it has gone decidedly "football." It is Maureen O'Sullivan, of film prestige, who in flying colors is scoring her touchdowns in this hand-laced suede suit of devastating chic. Even the buttons are laced as is also the pig-grain leather football hat. Her bag is of the same leather ingeniously shaped like a football. The suit's standup collar is new.

Irish Retire Ancient Bell

Used in the pork market, on a church, and then as a fire alarm, an ancient bell has been honorably "retired" in the Urban council rooms of Dungannon, Irish Free State. City employees removed it from a pole near the R. U. C. barracks, where it had done duty for many years as a fire alarm. For almost a century the bell was used in the pork market, then in Market Square, and when the parish church was being rebuilt in 1803-'09 it summoned the congregation to worship in the primitive Wesleyan preaching house, which was lent for two years to the Church of Ireland authorities.

First Radium Mined

Radium first was obtained from ore mined at St. Joachimsthal, which then was in Austria and now is in Czechoslovakia. Then ore was discovered in California and Colorado which produced radium more cheaply than was possible with the Austrian product, and beginning in 1913, the United States had a virtual monopoly of radium production for nearly ten years.

Wingless Bird

The kiwi, or apteryx, a native of New Zealand, cannot fly. Its Greek name, apteryx, signifies that it has no wings. There are stumps which can only be seen when its feathers are pushed aside. This bird is almost extinct in the Antipodes and the New Zealand government has established kiwi reservations to protect its remaining numbers.

Nickel Three-Cent Pieces

Nickel three-cent pieces were first minted in 1895, and silver three-cent pieces were minted from 1851 to 1873, inclusive.

The Suffrage Amendment

The word woman is not used in the suffrage amendment. What it says is: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex." The second section says: "Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article."

"A Roland for an Oliver"

"A Roland for an Oliver" means a blow for a blow, or tit for tat. The reference is to Roland and Oliver, paladins or Charlemagne, whose exploits were so similar that it was difficult to distinguish between them. At length the two met in single combat and fought for five days without either gaining the least advantage.

"Wait" Name of a Station

"Wait" cries the guard when the train stops at a station in Ruthenia, Czechoslovakia's most eastern province. "Wait" cries the porter. "Where are we?" the passengers ask. "Wait!" they are told, and finally they discover that the name of the station, Pockai, happens to mean in local dialect "Wait!"—Tit-Bits Magazine.

American-Bred Dogs High Class

That American-bred dogs in a very large number of the breeds have made such progress and have become so well established that it is no longer necessary to make importations to win top show honors is revealed in figures released by the American Kennel Club.

First Girl Scouts

The first American group of Girl Scouts was organized at Savannah, Ga., in 1912. It was patterned after a similar movement in Scotland, but on a modified scale.

Salt and Pepper Shakers Come in Guise of Cherries

Salt and pepper shakers now come disguised as plump, bright red cherries with silver stems and leaves. They're both decorative and useful, and those who have them say they create a healthy appetite for a cherry pie as dessert.

Helpful Hints

The skirts of old house dresses make excellent aprons with only a minimum of cutting and sewing.

Handkerchiefs soaked for 15 minutes in salty water will wash as easily as those soaked over night.

A little flour sprinkled in the frying pan before putting in the ham or bacon to fry will stop the grease from splattering out.

Your muffin tins are excellent for baking apples, stuffed peppers, etc.

When making apple sauces always add the sugar just before the sauce is removed from the stove. This method requires the use of much less sugar to sweeten it.

Sometimes plain table salt rubbed on black spots on dishes will remove them.

Graham Cracker Pineapple Torte
1 pkg. Orange Jewel-Jell
1 cup boiling water
1 cup pineapple juice
1 1/2 cups crushed pineapple
1/2 pint whipping cream
13 Graham crackers.

Dissolve jello in water and add pineapple juice. Chill. Beat until foamy. Fold in pineapple and whipped cream. Arrange four alternating layers of graham crackers and mixture in a glass bake dish, having six crackers on the bottom and 6 in the third layer. Crush and sprinkle one graham cracker as a garnish over the top layer. Allow to "set" before serving.

Potatoes with Cheese Sauce.

1 quart small potatoes
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon butter or olive oil
1 tablespoon flour
4 tablespoons grated cheese
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of paprika
1 tablespoon parsley.
Wash, scrape or pare, and boil the potatoes 25 minutes; drain, cover with cheese sauce, made as follows: Put the butter into saucepan, add flour and mix well. Then add the cold milk slowly; boil 3 minutes; add seasoning and cheese; stir until cheese is smooth, then pour over the potatoes. Sprinkle with parsley. This makes a very hearty dish—an excellent meat substitute.

Calavo Blossom Salad.

1 pkg. lime jello.
2 cups water
1 calavo
1 grapefruit, sectioned
Mayonnaise
Lettuce.
Dissolve jello in 1 cup hot water and add 1 cup cold water. Pour half into glass pie plate and congeal. Section grapefruit. Cut calavo in half; peel and slice lengthwise. Pour juice drained from grapefruit over slices. When jello has set slightly, arrange fruit sections alternately to form a flower. Pour remaining jello over this and return to refrigerator. To serve, turn onto chop plate on bed of lettuce. Top with mayonnaise, diluted with grapefruit juice.

Sarajevo Is Gay City

Sarajevo, old Bosna Seral, the ancient capital of Turkish Bosnia, in modern Yugoslavia, is a gay city of minarets and embellished steeples. Jews, Turks, Greeks, Slavs and Gypsies inhabit the city and the manufactures are jewelry, arms, leather and woolen goods. Its name was derived from the old palace or serral built by Mohammed II. Sarajevo is famous as the place where the assassination of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, and his wife, occurred, which brought on the great World war of 1914.

Question Legality of New Kind of Duck Caller

The Department of Conservation has received a circular from the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey calling the attention of the Department to a new invention for the purpose of calling ducks. It consists of a phonograph record on which has been recorded the call of the duck. The Bureau is said to have asked for an injunction against the use of phonograph record. The question is whether the record is actually using the call made by a duck or whether the call is made by a hunter with a duck caller. If the latter, it would be legal.
